

Freedom of Information Statistics (Male and Female Victims)

Figures compiled by the ManKind Initiative through Freedom of Information Requests to English and Welsh police forces.

They cover 2012, 2013 and the first six months of 2014 (end June 2014)

The questions were asked by Ian McNicholl to each police authority asking for the gender breakdown of people reporting to them as victims of domestic abuse for each of the above periods.

Some police forces (those in red) have failed to supply the information
